

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

MANTI.

The marriage of Miss Rosalia Buehler of this city, and Henry C. Strickler, of Hooper, was solemnized at the Manti temple Wednesday last by President John B. Maiben. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Buehler of this city and is one of our most estimable young women. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and only the immediate friends of the young people were present to take part in the reception. Many valuable and handsome presents were in evidence. Mr. and Mrs. Strickler will make their home in Hooper and left Friday morning for their home.

Mrs. Dilworth Woolley, of Richfield, was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner E. Snow, during the week.

Miss Louise Hardy visited friends in Manti this week. She came up from Salt Lake City last week.

A bundle shower was given for Miss Mary Ruesch at the home of Mrs. Ezra Shoemaker Wednesday afternoon and evening. Many handsome presents were in evidence. Miss Ruesch's engagement to Julius Korn of the metropolis has been announced. The marriage to take place in October.

Mrs. Fred Jorgensen, of Ephraim, was a visitor at the temple during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham Casto, of Salina, spent several days in Manti this week, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Erasmus Westenskov entertained a few of her friends Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Walter T. Haster, of Nephi, was a visitor in Manti with relatives and friends during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey W. Bird, of Salina, were temple visitors during the week.

Mrs. Caroline Roach and daughter, of Spanish Fork, spent Tuesday in Manti, visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wallace Riddle and children returned this week from Pangutich, after spending the summer months there with her husband and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Singleton, of Peron, were here this week, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson, of Redmond, were Manti visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brockbank, of Spanish Fork, visited relatives and friends in the temple city during Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Alfred Dahl, of Ephraim, visited at the temple Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Joseph Braithwaite, of Ephraim, visited relatives and friends in Manti on Tuesday.

The friends of Miss Rosalia Buehler gave her a shower at her home in this city this week.

Alma A. Scovill and Artemissa Burdette, both of Orangeville, were married at the temple Wednesday of this week.

Allen Searles and Margaret Taylor, both of Fremont, were married at the temple Wednesday of this week.

H. E. Jensen, formerly deputy county clerk of Sanpete county, and Miss Marie Anderson, the popular young milliner of Ephraim, were married at the temple Wednesday last by President John B. Maiben. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents that evening. The young people will spend their honeymoon in Logan.

Mrs. Clarissa Ware, of Orangeville, spent the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ware, in this city.

Andrew C. Thompson, of Pleasant Grove, was a temple visitor during the week.

Mrs. Christine Thulin, of Ephraim, spent Tuesday in Manti, visiting friends.

Mrs. Sarah J. Beck, of Spanish Fork, visited relatives and friends in Manti during the week.

J. P. and C. N. Jensen, of Ephraim, were at the temple Wednesday last to witness the marriage of H. E. Jensen and Miss Marie Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson left this week for their new home in Sunnyside.

Mrs. John Kammerman came up from the metropolis during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buehler, Jr., of Ogden, came to Manti this week to attend the wedding of Mr. Buehler's sister, Rosalia, to Henry O. Strickler.

The Misses Myrtle Farnsworth and Maeser, of Beaver, came to Manti this week to remain during the school year as teachers in our district schools.

Fred Hall left for Logan this week to attend school. Quite a number of our young people are taking up their studies in the Agricultural college this season.

Miss Freda Buehler came up from the metropolis this week to visit with her parents and attend the wedding of her sister.

Professor and Mrs. C. W. Reid, of Provo, returned to their home this week after spending a few days in this city with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Alva N. Murdoch, of Charleston, is in the city visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Larsen.

Ray Hougaard left for Logan Sunday last, where he will attend school the coming winter.

Miss Effie Jolley left this week for Provo to attend the Brigham Young university during the coming winter.

Miss Elda Snow left for school at Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Parry entertained this week for the presidents of several of this city. Refreshments were served and a profitable and enjoyable time was had.

Miss Frances Paxman returned to her home in Nephi this week, after spending a few weeks in Manti with Miss Ephraim Bird.

The marriage of Miss Little Chapman and Julian Westenskov, both young people of this city, will take place during the month of October.

Mrs. Maria Lowry is spending a few days in Provo with her daughter, Mrs. McArthur.

Mrs. William F. Reid was in Manti during the week from Peron, where she is at present making her home.

Thursday of next week a missionary social will be given in honor of Jorgen Madsen, who leaves within a few days for Scandinavia as a missionary for the Mormon church.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Goble, of the metropolis, were visitors with relatives in this city this week.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Sven O. Nielson, of Fairview, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sorenson, of this city. A number of guests were present and a most pleasant time was enjoyed.

LEHI.

The Lehi High school last Wednesday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: A. J. Phillips, president; Emily Wanless, vice president; Guy Evans, secretary; treasurer, executive committee, Ed Holmstead, Eliza Phillips, Carl Doston; manager of athletics, Silas Terry; manager of debating, May Jackson; athletic council, Ed Southwick, Karl Hopkins, G. N. Child, Floyd Schow and Silas Terry.

The Lehi fire department gave a highly successful party in the city pavilion Friday evening.

Asa Clark and Miss Julia Bone will be married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday and will hold a reception at the home of the bride's parents the same evening.

Dr. E. C. Merrihew, who has been practicing in Lehi for the past ten years, removed to Salt Lake City this week, where he will continue his dental practice.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Allred entertained Saturday evening in honor of their son, Ray, who leaves for England this week.

Last Wednesday Miss Aethel Allred and Clarence Yates were married in the Salt Lake temple.

A. J. Owen Broomfield of Garland is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Hasler.

George N. Child and J. E. Standing, president and secretary of the Alpine stake Y. M. C. A., spent Sunday in Cedar Fort perfecting the local organization at that place.

Thursday evening Misses Birdie Stoddard and Mabel Southwick gave a bundle shower in honor of Miss Julia Bone.

Thursday evening Miss Julia Bone returned this week from a two weeks' visit to California.

Jane Vaughn is home from a month's visit with relatives in Sugar City.

Mrs. Dr. Hasler is visiting with friends in Manti.

Mr. Owen Stewart and family have moved in from Toplioff.

Merritt Prestwich of Idaho Falls is visiting friends in Lehi.

John Roberts, Jr., is spending a fortnight in Manti.

Frank Ingalls of Idaho was the guest of his mother in Lehi.

Mrs. M. W. Ingalls at their beautiful home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilcox of Salt Lake City are visiting relatives in Lehi.

Mr. Abe Gudmundson has gone to Provo for the winter, where her daughter will attend the university.

Missie Gardner, Alice Knudson, Edna Doston, Gladys Southwick and Effie Webb left this week to attend the B. Y. university.

PARK CITY.

Mrs. Henry Welsh entertained at "bridge whist" Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Leconte was given first prize and Miss Clara Fargo second prize. Misses Kate Malone and Amber Barsley assisted Mrs. Welsh.

Charles Shields returned to Park Wednesday morning after an absence of five months.

Miss Agnes Harrington spent Thursday of the past week in Salt Lake.

The Matron circle of the Eastern Star met with Miss Agnes Kelley Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served by Miss Kelley. The next meeting will be at Mrs. A. Williams.

The regular meeting of the O. E. S. was held Friday evening. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Mrs. H. Fares returned home Tuesday morning after a few days spent in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles Shields entertained the Pioneer bridge whist at her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Harper and Miss Alice Harper have returned to their home in Salt Lake after a pleasant ten days' visit in Park with relatives.

Mrs. Youngberg entertained a number of her friends at cards Thursday evening.

Mrs. Whitehead came up to Park Thursday morning.

The sophomore class of the high school gave a moonlight picnic Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sherman returned home Thursday morning after a pleasant visit in Salt Lake with friends.

Miss Irma Evans entertained very informally Sunday afternoon.

Miss Blanche Delighton entertained a few of her friends Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Harper of Salt Lake.

Mrs. Allen came up to Park Thursday morning.

Mrs. Charles Shields took a crowd of young people up the tramway on a picnic Saturday.

Dr. R. E. Wright and Mark Wright were passengers to Salt Lake Wednesday afternoon.

The junior class of the Park City High school gave a lawn party Friday evening at the home of Miss Tessie Beggs.

The lawn was strung with Japanese lanterns and the class colors, royal blue and gold, were used in decorating.

Julius Frankel and daughter Julia spent Saturday and Sunday in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Julius Frankel and Master George Frankel went to Salt Lake the early part of the week for a few days' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Tessie Lambert entertained about twelve of her friends Monday evening, the occasion being the young lady's birthday. The evening was spent in card-playing and music, and delicious refreshments were served.

The event of the week was the dance at the drain tunnel Friday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. Tabot and Mr. George Ames.

Mrs. Oliver and Mike Oliver were passengers to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Getsch went to Salt Lake Sunday afternoon, where she expects to remain for the winter.

Misses Crescent Smith and Cleo Getsch were passengers to Salt Lake Sunday to resume their studies at the University of Utah.

Eddie Evans has gone to Logan to attend the agricultural college.

Dan Shields was in Salt Lake this week.

Mr. and Mrs. McClelland and children came down from Butte Monday morning and will remain for some time.

Mrs. Pat Lowry returned to Park Friday morning, after two weeks spent in Salt Lake.

RICHFIELD.

Mrs. O. A. Kelly visited with her parents in Salina the past week.

J. W. Hopkins, of Glendale, has been visiting in Richfield the past week, with relatives.

Mrs. Cal Sly returned to Kimberly this week, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Ross.

J. F. Bean went to Mt. Pleasant Monday to visit with a sister, Mrs. A. Johnson.

Miss Stevie Jensen returned from Salt Lake Tuesday, after a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. E. Dalton, of Annabella, went to Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. Dilworth Woolley returned Monday from a visit with her parents at Manti.

Miss Tillie Cuddeback, of Salina, is visiting in Richfield this week, with the Misses Clark.

Miss Minnie Christenson came down from Kimberly Sunday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Christenson.

Miss Ruby Wells, of Joseph, visited in Richfield this week with her sister.

Miss Charlotte Dimmick is visiting in Gunnison with friends this week.

Mrs. Susan Henrie, of Manti, arrived this week on a visit to the family of her son, Arthur Henrie.

Judge Chidester went to Ogden Sunday and accompanied Mrs. Chidester home.

Mrs. Caroline Wright came over from Kosharem this week, and after a visit here of several days with relatives, went to Provo Friday.

A. Dennis returned to Richfield Sunday, after spending the summer in Idaho and northern Utah.

M. C. Nielson came down from Salt Lake Tuesday on a visit to his parents and other relatives.

Miss Effie Huntington, of Springville, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Whyte during the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Nelson and children returned from Gold Mountain Monday, after spending a couple of weeks at the Signal Peak mine.

Miss Belle Yardley, of Beaver, visited several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wright on her way to Provo, where she will attend school.

Earl Thompson, of Annabella, arrived home Monday, after spending the summer in Idaho. He will have charge of the Monroe public schools this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stewart, Jr., and Miss Minnie Poulson went up to the Gold Development camp Monday, to remain for some time.

Lionel Bean arrived from Wonder, Nevada, this week, on account of the illness of his wife.

Mrs. Parley Nelson, who has been visiting in this city with relatives the past week, returned to Manti Monday.

Mrs. John Lawson is home from a two weeks' visit at Bellevue, Ida., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Barker.

One of the pretty little affairs of the week was the wedding of Miss Helen McOmie and Edward Larsen of Bingham. A reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride's parents on Vine street. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will make their home at Brigham Junction.

MURRAY.

The social event of the week was the dance given in the Trocadero Wednesday evening for the Audubon employees of Salt Lake. A jolly crowd of about 300 participated in the affair and special cards were prepared for their benefit.

The ball four ladies were in charge of the punch bowl. Held's hand was in attendance, which insured the best of music.

Leo Winder has returned from a summer's vacation spent in the southern part of Idaho.

Thomas W. Powell, Jr., spent Saturday and Sunday of this week at Spanish Fork visiting with friends.

Oliver Wareski was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening at her home on State street by a number of her schoolmates. Games were played, after which light refreshments were served.

L. A. Crowland has moved his family here from Sandy for permanent residence.

The Misses Theresa Cahoon and Carmela Jones, with Jean Winder, left Monday morning for the city, where they will attend school at the University of Utah.

Roy Cahoon left Monday morning for Logan, where he goes to attend school at the Agricultural college.

Harry Holding, of Ely, Nev., spent Thursday in this city, the guest of Harry A. Powell.

Hewlett and Miss Lena Creek were quietly married during the fore part of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jones left Thursday last for an extended trip to Seattle, where they expect to locate permanently.

Mrs. M. Davis and daughter Vilie spent Sunday at Provo visiting with relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Torrence and son have left for Montana, their former home, where they expect to remain for a short time.

Mrs. Charles Nyerhams of Portland is here visiting with friends.

The bazaar of the First ward opened Wednesday and was a success. It closed Friday evening.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. William Draper and Mrs. George Parker gave a linen shower in honor of Miss Helen McOmie. Many beautiful pieces of linen were presented to the young lady by her friends. At 3 o'clock a dainty lunch was served to all those present, and the rest of the afternoon was spent in various games and music.

Carl Powell was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening, when a number of his school friends presented themselves at the door, coming in on their unsuspecting victim unaware. The evening was spent in games and music, and later on light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Albert Cahoon and daughter Leona are expected home shortly from Bellevue, where they have been spending the entire summer.

Mrs. William D. Leonard was the hostess Thursday afternoon at a most delightful card party at her home in this city. About thirty-five friends made the trip out from Salt Lake, mostly in automobiles, and enjoyed the afternoon. Five hundred was the game played, and prizes were won by Mrs. W. E. Terhune, Mrs. Chant and Miss Kinney. The house was bright with autumn flowers.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. R. H. Ofness and by her sister, Miss Johnson, who is her guest.

The wedding of Miss Edna Morrissey and E. R. Mossberg took place at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday evening. The contracting couple will make their home in Salt Lake.

Mrs. John Lawson is home from a two weeks' visit at Bellevue, Ida., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Barker.

One of the pretty little affairs of the week was the wedding of Miss Helen McOmie and Edward Larsen of Bingham. A reception was tendered the young couple at the home of the bride's parents on Vine street. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will make their home at Brigham Junction.

PROVO.

An elaborate wedding reception was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Holdaway in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rhoda, to Reed Anderberg, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake temple at high noon Wednesday.

The bride was charming in an elegant white silk princess gown, the room in the usual suit of black. The groom was beautifully decorated in a color scheme, pink carnations and roses being abundantly used. Many beautiful and expensive presents were received by the happy young couple. A sumptuous wedding supper was served.

The M. I. officers of the sixth ward, socially entertained their members at a social at the ward house Tuesday evening. The room was prettily decorated with white bunting and sunflowers. Long tables were arranged which were prettily decorated with myrtle and sunflowers. John McAdam acted as master of ceremonies. Games and music made the hours pass all too soon.

Mrs. Susan Phillips of Kansas City visited with friends in this city this week. She was the guest at the home of Miss Annie Penroid.

Mr. and Mrs. Al VanWagon were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson at dinner Sunday.

Miss Marian Adams, who has spent the summer in our city, returned to Salt Lake City, where she is employed in the L. D. S. high school.

Misses Lydia and Pearl Jones delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones, in honor of Will Bassett. Games, sweet music and a social time was enjoyed by a large number of friends. An elaborate lunch was served.

A large number of relatives and friends pleasantly surprised Owen Smoot at his home Monday evening, the occasion being his birth anniversary. Games, cards and music were enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served.

A very pleasant social was given Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Beasley in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nelson, who left Friday for the east, where Mr. Nelson will spend the next two years studying. A delightful social evening was passed and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. William Strong has returned home after a pleasant and profitable summer spent at Spring Del.

Miss Chloe Smoot was the charming hostess of a social Friday evening, at the home of her parents, Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot. The guests of honor were Samuel D. Thurman and William Bassett. Games, cards and sweet music were enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Judith Leatham of Lake Shore has next two years studying. A delightful social evening was passed and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Alice Smoot was the recipient of a delightful surprise party at her home Wednesday evening by a large number of her friends. Games, music and recitations all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Alice Nibley of Salt Lake were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry this week.

Mrs. J. C. Graham visited her son Leyland at the L. D. S. hospital Friday.

Mrs. C. H. Wright delightfully entertained Friday evening at a bundle shower in honor of Miss Alice Teasdale. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of cards, games and music. Many useful and beautiful presents were received by the bride-elect. Lunch was served.

Miss Fannie Ellis visited friends in Salt Lake a couple of days this week.

William Homer of Eureka visited relatives and friends in Provo this week.

The Misses Francella and Pearl Adams returned home from a summer vacation spent in the east. They visit a New York, Boston, Washington, Jamestown and other prominent eastern cities. They report a most delightful and profitable summer.

S. S. and Mrs. Julia Jones announce the marriage of Miss Alice Teasdale and their son, R. Eugene, which will be solemnized in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, September 25.

Miss Annie Penroid is visiting Mrs. Nephie Bates of Richfield this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dominicus Snow announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie, to Mr. Franklin Duffin, which will take place in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, October 2.

A very pretty home wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Whitmore, when they gave their daughter Edith in marriage to Sidney Robey of Colton. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk and carried a showy bouquet. The ceremony was

Continued on Page 3.

MEHEEY'S GRAND FUR

OPENING

MONDAY TUESDAY

AND WEDNESDAY

SEPT. 23-24-25

KRUTSFORD HOTEL

BLDG.

We celebrate our seventeenth anniversary of fur selling in this city, having built up the largest fur business in the entire west.

On above dates occurs our opening. Scores of distinct creations, mirroring the smartest dictates of Parisian and New York fashion artists have been chosen with discriminating taste.

We extend a cordial invitation to visit our store.

